Good bye to a Champion:

Werner E. Sachse

1937-02-01 to 2010-09-01

The IKD learnt with great sadness of the death early on 01 September 2010 of its former Secretary General, Honorary Member and long serving Auditor, Werner Sachse from Germany.

Werner, one of the most popular and well known faces in the world-wide investigation business, serving as he did at the apex of all leading representative organisations in which he participated during the last 50 years, and principally as President of The World Association of Detectives for the term 1999-2000, will be dearly missed by all members and affiliates of the IKD as in deed he will from the investigation world in total.

A true gentleman, with a great sense of humour and a huge presence at all conferences he attended, which for the international arena was just about all meetings of significance, Werner achieved the highest and unrivalled recognition from a number of IKD member organisations.

On behalf of the IKD Executive, member organisations and wider individual membership we pay tribute to a Champion whose influence will remain embedded in history. We offer our sincere condolences to Werner's wife, Hanne.
