Association Membership Criteria

A.N.D.R works under section criteria:

Section A: Founding members (24 individuals who have founded A.N.D.R. and they have the unique quality of founding members)

Section B: Agencies and individual cabinets of detectives. The membership quality could be obtained only by licensed agencies or individual cabinets which have a recommendation from two members. The request is analyzed by The Directory Counsel of the Association after a profound study of the applicant file. After obtaining the membership quality, the agency/cabinet is receiving a certificate and a registration number, which attests that it becomes a member of A.N.D.R. Section B

Section C: Individuals (detectives which already have a license) The membership quality could be obtained by detectives which have a recommendation from two members. The request is analyzed in The Directory Counsel of the Association after a profound study of the applicant file. After obtaining the membership quality, the detective is receiving a certificate and a registration number, which attests that it becomes a member of A.N.D.R. Section C

Section D: Partners. This quality could be obtained only by individuals or firms that could have a serious implication in the development of the private investigation activity: teachers in this speciality, criminalists, forensic experts, institutional training facilities (schools for detectives). They could become partner member after a major vote by the whole members of the Association, but not before presenting a request.

Section E: Members from abroad: Those members have only an honorific status, they have no vote rights. The membership criterion is to be recommended by their national association which must be a member of IKD, but not before presenting their licence Section F: Honorific members: Great personalities which contribution in promoting and development in the private investigation activity is exquisite, public figures from Romania and abroad. They also have no vote rights.

Comments on Regulation, if any:

In july 2010 Extraordinary Congres from Predeal, the Romanian detectives decided :
to modify the law 329/2004 in order to obtain:

- The access to the profession for individuals with medium education
- The right to sustain evidence in the court of law
- The right to be protected during their activity.
- The right to have access to more information to have a new Ethic Code

to have an attitude in front of unskilled work of private detectives and against private detectives who have problems with colleagues and who do not respect the honour.
